The Essentials

Selecting a Business Form

Various organizational structures exist for business, one of which must be chosen, according to liability and/or tax considerations. See bit.ly/busXpress or bit.ly/structuresba.

Business Name & Registration

Every business requires a legal name, determining if it needs to be registered with the Secretary of State Corporation Division at (503) 986-2200. For name availability: www.filinginoregon.com. To register with the State, you must submit an application and a nonrefundable processing fee to the Business Registry at secure.sos.state.or.us/cbrmanager

City Business License

Businesses and persons (including home businesses), doing business within the City of Forest Grove must obtain a business license each year: <https://goo.gl/asZbaC>

Federal tax identification number

An employer identification number (EIN), is mandatory, except for sole proprietorships with no employees. This requires the SS-4 Form: www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fss4.pdf, or (800) 829- 3676

Other Licensing and Permits

Location, Zoning, and Building Requirements

Acquiring a building or piece of property for business, relocating an existing business, or making additions to an existing business requires proper zoning. Business activities are determined by the Planning Department: goo.gl/YAh1u2 or (503) 992-3233.

Building Permits

For additions, improvements, or new constructions, it is necessary to obtain a building permit. See goo.gl/YFjQRG or (503) 992-3229

Professional / Occupational Licenses

Oregon requires many businesses to obtain special licensing, permits, or certifications from agencies or boards. See licenseinfo.oregon.gov/, or (503) 986-2200

Restaurant Licenses & Food Handling Permits

Washington County requires restaurants to be licensed. Employees that prepare and serve food in a restaurant or food service facility must pass a food handler test. See goo.gl/E3nCgv or (503) 846-8722

Contractor / Landscaper Licenses

Metro offers a regional contractor's business license that covers commercial and residential construction trades, and all landscape contractors. A business license (without the usual fee) must still be filled out and submitted to the City goo.gl/dRxfYf or (503) 797-1620
